over the past two centuries the christian faith has spread to all continents although more global than ever christians are religious minorities in most societies religious freedom is hardly universal in the past fifty years millions of people have been uprooted from their traditional homelands in asia africa and latin america some have emigrated to western europe and north america the west has become the scene of cultural linguistic and religious variety on a scale unimagined in 1900 today the full range of faiths and religious practices from all continents are present in europe and north america christians are challenged to come to terms with this changed situation these developments have intensified religious plurality christians all over the world are being urged to understand and engage with this new situation this volume highlights this new reality and specifies some sources for engagement not least among them the judeo christian scriptures fundamental to all christianities that emerged out of religious plural contexts on the basis of their faith in the triune god disclosed in this text all followers of Jesus Christ must interact with these opportunities in today's radically context sensitive world

Ernst Cassirer occupies a unique space in twentieth century philosophy a great liberal humanist his multi faceted work spans the history of philosophy the philosophy of science intellectual history aesthetics epistemology the study of language and myth and more Cassirer's thought also anticipates the renewed interest in the origins of analytic and continental philosophy in the twentieth century and the divergent paths taken by the logicist and existential traditions epitomised by his now legendary debate in 1929 with the philosopher Martin Heidegger over the question what is the human being the philosophy of symbolic forms is Cassirer's most important work it was first published in German in 1923 the third and final volume appearing in 1929 in it Cassirer presents a radical new philosophical worldview at once rich creative and controversial of human beings as fundamentally symbolic animals placing signs and systems of expression between themselves and the world this major new translation of all three volumes the first for over fifty years brings Cassirer's magnum opus to a new generation of students and scholars taken together the three volumes of the philosophy of symbolic forms are a vital treatise on human beings as symbolic animals and a monumental expression of neo Kantian thought correcting important errors in previous English editions this translation reflects the contributions of significant advances in Cassirer scholarship over the last twenty to thirty years each volume includes a new introduction and translator's notes by Steve G. Loft a foreword by Peter E. Gordon a glossary of key terms and a thorough index
