this collection brings to the public the fruits of the groundlaying work on the philosophy phenomenology of life presented in some 30 volumes of the analecta husserliana and inaugurates a new phase in philosophy phenomenology a truly radical turn as tymieniecka in her introduction puts it the time is ripe to abandon the prejudices against empiria and set aside in a second position the epistemological constitutive criterion of validity and truth without however abandoning it to the contrary recognising with our present culture the overwhelmingly superior validity of the pragmaticity test which science indubitably applies in its verification of technology philosophy phenomenology at last reaches the full significance of reality the fullness of the vital fact of life which comprises not only the works and enjoyment of the mind and the spirit but those of the bios and the cosmos too the full fledged dialogue with the hard core sciences opens up philosophy of life and the human creative condition draws together all the radiations of life into its field of inquiry tymieniecka thus proposes a new mathesis universalis the dream of leibniz and husserl which can at least be fulfilled
