the cultural consumption research landscape of the 21st century is marked by an increasing cross disciplinary fermentation at the same time cultural theory and analysis have been marked by successive inter turns most notably with regard to the big four multimodality or intermodality interdiscursivity transmediality or intermediality and intertextuality this book offers an outline of interdiscursivity as an integrative platform for accommodating these notions to this end a call for a return to Foucault is issued via a critical engagement with the so-called practice turn. This return does not seek to reconstitute venerable Foucauldianism but to theorize intersubjectivity as vanishing points that challenge the integrity of discrete cultural orders in non-convergent manners. The propounded interdiscursivity approach is offered as a reading strategy that permeates the contemporary cultural consumption phenomena that are scrutinized in this book against a post-consumptivist framework. By drawing on qualitative and mixed methods research designs facilitated by CAQDAS software, the empirical studies that are hosted here span a vivid array of topics that are directly relevant to both traditional and new media researchers such as the consumption of ideologies in 20 social movements, the ability of micro-celebrities to act as cultural game-changers, the post-loyalty affective consumption ethos. The theoretically novel approaches on offer are coupled with methodological innovations in areas such as user-generated content, artists' branding, and experiential consumption.
