in the past century dozens of books have been written that are designed to teach piano within these books are time honored practices and principles of learning how to play almost invariably these books contain information on scales notes chords and songs which the learner is expected to master and those books lead the reader through the same basic sequence of learning the piano from the parts of music to the whole from notes to scales to chords from the pieces of written music to the whole and for the most part these books are very thorough why is that 90 of those who try these books never play the piano again after their initial encounter with the instrument while it is possible to come up with a variety of reasons including the inherent difficulty of the instrument lack of talent on the part of the learner or lack of discipline none of these explanations are really satisfactory some learners have the discipline to overcome all sorts of obstacles to learn melodies simple songs and even difficult pieces and it is rare that even the least talented learner can't acquire some skill on the instrument if they have work ethic this book is remarkably different for three major reasons first this book is based on the assumption that the keyboard is the book or the book is the keyboard the music is not in the notes on the page for they are just marks the music is in the mind of the learner and in the sounds produced through the mind to the fingers to the keyboard and back again second this book builds on the traditions of the past it is not that all of the books instructors and past methods are wrong but it does mean that they may have fallen short of the goals they reflected third this book is based on how learners learn not just on how notes scales and chords are presented many of the past books assume that it is up to the learner to fill in the blanks throughout the book there will be found explanations on how to learn and what happens when a person is learning new information in the tradition of george saunders and aimee bender an exuberantly imagined debut that chronicles an ordinary world marked by unusual phenomena the eighteen stories of manuel gonzales's exhilarating first book render the fantastic commonplace and the ordinary extraordinary in prose that thrums with energy and shimmers with beauty in the artist's voice we meet one of the world's foremost composers a man who speaks through his ears a hijacked plane circles a city for twenty years in pilot copilot writer sound can kill in the sounds of early morning and in the title story a man is at war with the wife he accidentally shrank for these characters the phenomenal isn't necessarily special but it's often dangerous in slightly fantastical settings gonzales illustrates very real guilt over small and large marital missteps the intense desire for the reinvention of self and the powerful urges we feel to defend and provide for the people we love with wit and insight these stories subvert our expectations and challenge us to look at our surroundings with fresh eyes brilliantly conceived strikingly original and told with the narrative instinct of a born storyteller the miniature wife is an unforgettable debut the interest in piano and the desire to play has increased tremendously in the past few years especially is this noticeable among adults who have either had some elementary piano instruction in their youth or have been denied this study for various reasons this increased interest is partly due to the widespread influence of radio hearing music almost daily has become an integral part of our lives and it is this constant influence which has awakened a keen and natural desire to become an active participant it is to the furtherance and stimulation of this natural desire that this course was planned the adult approach has been kept constantly in mind however not to the exclusion of certain basic principles which are necessary in order to make rapid and satisfactory progress the logical and stepwise manner of progression in this course should prove of inestimable aid to both the student and teacher
