the great diversity of contexts in which the term postmodernism is currently encountered reflects the remarkable success of a coinage that has been in circulation for only about forty years it has been used by philosophers sociologists art critics and literary historians to become finally a household word in the language of advertising and politics before letting it fade to a derelict cliché an attempt is made in this volume of essays to use its potential as a cultural concept for the analysis and understanding of contemporary literature and thought

one of the unique voices in our century james merrill was known for his mastery of prosody his ability to write books that were not just collected poems but unified works in which each individual poem contributed to the whole and his astonishing evolution from the formalist lyric tradition that influenced his early work to the spiritual epics of his later career merrill s accomplishments were recognized with a pulitzer prize in 1977 for divine comedies and a national book critics circle award in 1983 for the changing light at sandover in this meticulously researched carefully argued work evans lansing smith argues that the nekylia the circular homeric narrative describing the descent into the underworld and reemergence in the same or similar place confers shape and significance upon the entirety of james merrill s poetry smith illustrates how pervasive this myth is in merrill s work not just in the changing light at sandover where it naturally serves as the central premise of the entire trilogy but in all of the poet s books before and after that central text by focusing on the details of versification and prosody smith demonstrates the ingenious fusion of form and content that distinguishes merrill as a poet moving beyond purely literary interpretations of the poetry smith illuminates the numerous allusions to music art theology philosophy religion and mythology found throughout merrill s work on the non west ever experienced in stern retort the author offers ways in which the peoples of the non west can counter the postmodern assault and survive with their identities histories and cultures intact
