viewed traditionally the history of sixteenth century mantuan music is almost a catalogue of some of the most distinguished composers of the age from Tromboncino and Cara via Jacquet of Mantua to Wert Palestrina Marenzio Pallavicino Gastoldi Rossi and Monteverdi the remarkable achievements of composers under Gonzaga patronage practically synonymous with Mantuan patronage during this period are treated here in their social context the arguments proceed not just from the music itself but from detailed examination of archival sources from which Dr Fenlon reconstructs employment patterns and describes the social structure and institutional life of the city the aim of the book is to show how the patterns of patronage and music and musicians reflect and illuminate the temperaments and prime preoccupations of successive rulers the book contains a substantial appendix of unpublished archival documents a small proportion only of the scholarly and comparative sources on which the study is based this study will appeal to musicologists as well as to students and teachers interested in the cultures of early modern Italy a selection of music illustrating in various ways the system of patronage which brought it into being and enabled its survival will be published in a companion volume bringing together a range of critics working on the hispanic and francophone as well as anglophone post colonial regions this book aims to dislocate some of the commonly accepted cultural linguistic and geographical boundaries that have previously informed post colonial studies collected essays include cross cultural comparisons from areas as diverse as africa ireland and latin america analysis of specific texts as sites of border conflict and revisions of post colonial theoretical frameworks a timely questioning of the categories of a critical field at the point when it is becoming increasingly comparative this volume seeks to suggest more dynamic ways of working in post colonial cultural studies
