achieved through the mid of february 2021 with the help of global developments although troops were withdrawn from the disputed parts of galwan valley parties could not come to an agreement on other regions as the snow melted the armies of both countries reinforced their borders after the 2020 clash in spite of messaging each other through media proxies and allies both countries did not budge from their claims on borders there are no implications of change on both parties classical discourse and strategical objectives on the contrary both countries are even more honed against each other the himalayas the hot front of the new cold war is still a conflict zone the biggest impediment to a new crisis in this region is the coronavirus pandemic as the regional and global competition of two emerging countries continue the prc seems to be getting the upper hand by tackling the coronavirus pandemic and impelling its economy by acquiring russian federation s support the prc has been challenging quad alliance on several fronts and india in the himalayas as well nevertheless the hurricanes of tides that will face the prc after the pandemic are still being sown both by the west and quad alliance the border dispute between the prc and india is the most heated front of the cold war whose groundwork has been laid and probably in the following period the first spark will be lit in the himalayas
