boileau has traditionally been regarded as the spokesman of french neo classicism but some elements of scholarship have discounted the importance of neo classical doctrine in general and of boileau s particular contribution to it many critical approaches have stressed instead the liveliness and wit of boileau's poems his love of language and his passionate temperament mr pocock uses these critical approaches to demonstrate in detail how boileau's verve love of contrasts and essentially dramatic imagination animate the major poems but he also argues that such approaches do not in themselves suffice to explain boileau's special qualities neo classicism was an important element in the intellectual life of europe in the most critical period of the decline of christianity and the rise of rationalism and science mr pocock proposes a reformulation of those views which take account not only of modern criticism but also of boileau's commitment to neo classicism and his embodiment of it in his work
