the diver s tale is an unvarnished account of real british diving based on the author s 40 year experience britain is an island nation so unsurprisingly scuba diving is a popular british pastime enjoyed by some 50 000 keen participants and just as many of the armchair variety a carefully structured programme of training ensures that the british diver is well prepared for the challenging conditions which may be encountered beneath our seas or does it how many trainee divers were taught about the perils of high speed testicular trauma during descent or the dangers of having sex in a tent with a deaf person why bacon should be in your first aid kit how to build a space shuttle using salvaged ammunition or why the name valerie is so very special during a 40 year plus odyssey through the strange and exotic world of british diving nick lyon and his disparate collection of buddies have answered all these questions from personal experience and many more besides it may not be pretty it may not be painless but to those in the know it's real british diving from ill fitting homemade wetsuits to technical closed circuit rebreather diving this book is an insight into the glamour and history of scuba diving in the uk by a man who has done it all the diver's tale is not a diving manual quite the opposite how not to do it why not to do it when not to do it and who not to do it with amusing frequently embarrassing often unpleasant and occasionally tragic the book plunges into the world of the real british diver now re edited and brought back up to date with a new chapter and a foreword by andy torbet acclaim for the diver's tale when it comes to celebrating the depressive compulsive nature of the british diving condition there is no writer like the talented mr lyon i cannot recommend it highly enough scuba i found it utterly absorbing and so did my budgie cyril as it fitted perfectly in the bottom of his cage alex woz warzynski chairman of the bsac a breath taking triumph that must take its place at the very pinnacle of diving literature above cousteau and all them lot now will you delete the photos helen hadley co owner orkney and shetland charters
