the importance of export control laws and regulations in international trade continues to grow not only because of the increase in world trade and technology dispersion but also due to concerns surrounding national and regional stability and the risk of terrorism accordingly familiarity with export control laws and regulations around the world has become extremely important for those involved in the international trade of dual use or military goods technology and services in this preeminent handbook now in its third edition two experienced professionals have gathered contributions from expert practitioners and academics the third edition adds three new country chapters brazil israel and sweden and a new separate chapter on sanctions and embargoes in addition to chapters on the international regime in general the book provides a practical overview of the export import control regimes covering defence and dual use goods and services in fourteen key jurisdictions country reports each follow the same structure for easy comparison issues and topics covered include the following and much more import export legal and regulatory requirements for controlled goods and services sanctions for breach of such requirements civil administrative or criminal licence application processes arms dual use and other products embargo including chemical and biological materials and technology and enforcement measures the handbook also makes available through an online application all important standard export control related forms templates and other related documents all of which readers can use to draft their own documents the handbook is invaluable to any professional such as lawyers compliance key players procurement logistics finance and customs practitioners working in relation to an organisation with a need to know the specific requirements to be followed for the efficient and legally compliant import or export of controlled military or dual use goods technologies or services this book gives practical and in depth presentation and analysis of the issues under china export control law and economic sanctions regime this book not only addresses issues faced by the legal entities in china but also attends to the concerns about chinese extra territorial jurisdiction of china export control law and sanctions legislations on the part of foreign companies finally the author shares his experiences on how to structure export control and sanctions compliance under chinese law on the part of both chinese and foreign companies considers s 3161 to extend permanently export control programs under the export control act of 1949 considers s 948 to amend export control act of 1949 by incorporating policy statement that u s opposes restrictive trade practices or boycotts imposed by foreign countries against other countries friendly to the u s this is the first book to focus on the theoretical and practical issues of export control it combines the points of view of japanese and french academics and practitioners including personnel at several governmental institutions and private companies presenting the results of a collaboration between japanese and french academics it contributes to the development of a new debate on export control although export control has been discussed within the framework of international law in terms of peace and security its scope has now been expanded to international economic law i e wto law and international investment law this means that in order to discuss export control appropriately the two areas of law have to be combined at the same time this topic is not only academic and theoretical but touches upon very real and practical aspects of trade export and foreign investment when we tighten embargos and economic sanctions for anti terrorism or anti nuclearization purposes we encounter more and more cases of conflict between security and the liberalization of economic relations in the world for this reason a wide range of collaborative work is needed in this area this timely book addresses various aspects of the current export control debate this long awaited new book from cynthia day wallace picks up the thread of her best selling legal control of the multinational enterprise national regulatory techniques and the prospects for international controls in the present work she applies herself to legal and pragmatic aspects of control surrounding mne operations the primary focus is on legal and administrative techniques and measures practised by host states to control transparently or less so foreign mne activity within their territories or even extraterritorially when effects are felt within national boundaries the primary geographic focus is the six most investment intensive industrialized states namely canada france germany japan the united states and the united kingdom at the same time an important message of the present study is precisely the implication for the developing countries as well as for the emerging market economies of central and eastern europe and even asian nations besides japan because it is the sharing of this very experience of years that can best serve to facilitate a fuller participation on the part of the up and coming economies in the same global market place the government published a consultation document export control act 2002 2007 review of export control legislation in june 2007 further details can be accessed at berr.gov.uk/consultations/page39910.html this report contains the quadripartite committee s own review of export control legislation along with its response to the government s consultation document the committee concludes that the export control act 2002 has provided a sound legislative basis for controlling and regulating the uk s strategic exports but with gaps and shortcomings it also welcomes the government s review as a constructive process that addresses many of the issues the committee and other parties have raised over several years and praises the improvement in the volume and quantity of information that the government provides but the review does not mention hm revenue and customs the department that enforces the controls and it ignores the eu dimension despite a significant part of the export control regime being derived from eu legislation the committee makes nearly 100 recommendations and observations on the review and the operation and effectiveness of the uk export control legislation
