the día de muertos an intimate look at mexico s most evocative celebration a photographic journey into the heart of one of mexican culture s most fascinating and profound traditions these images captured in the streets of mexico city and the vibrant municipalities of toluca and metepec document the extraordinary celebration of día de muertos where the boundary between life and death dissolves into a triumph of colors rituals and collective memory the visual reportage unveils a conception of death radically different from the western one not a moment of final departure but an occasion for reunion celebration and continuity with loved ones each shot reveals the essence of this unique festival where the pain of loss transforms into a joyous tribute to life itself
