this volume examines music's place in the process of Jewish assimilation into the modern European bourgeoisie and the role assigned to music in forging a new Jewish Israeli national identity in maintaining a separate Sephardic identity and in preserving a traditional Jewish life. Contributions include on the Jewish presence in nineteenth century European musical life by Ezra Mendelsohn, musical life in the Central European Jewish village by Philip V. Bohlman, Jews and Hungarians in modern Hungarian musical culture by Judit Frigyesi, new directions in the music of the Sephardic Jews by Edwin Seroussi, The Eretz Israeli Song and the Jewish National Fund by Natan Shahar, Alexander U. Boskovitch, and The Quest for an Israeli Musical Style by Jehoash Hirshberg, and Music of Holy Argument by Lionel Wolberger. The volume also contains essays, book reviews, and a list of recent dissertations in the field.

This comprehensive annotated resource of solo repertoire for the horn documents in detail the rich catalogue of original solo compositions for the instrument intended as a guide for practical use and easy reference. It is organized into three large sections: works for unaccompanied horn, works for horn and keyboard, and works for horn and ensemble. Each entry includes publisher information, a brief description of the form and character of a work, technical details of the horn writing, and information on dedication and premiere. The authors also include commentary on the various techniques required and the performance challenges of each piece. Representing over ten years of careful compilation and notation by an expert in horn performance and pedagogy and by a seasoned music librarian and natural horn performer, Guide to the Solo Horn Repertoire will be an invaluable resource for performers, educators, and composers.

When you play a recording, have you ever paused to think about what went into making of it? Rest assured there is more here than meets the eye and ear. This book takes an irreverent, behind-the-scenes look at the classical record business. The author draws on three decades in recording and broadcasting to tell the story of his own and other classical record labels. This amusing and informative memoir covers recording and editing techniques and how albums are planned, made, and marketed, so are broadcast programming, press reviews, and awards. In short, every facet of this fascinating industry. The pages of note perfect are populated by musical legends like Yehudi Menuhin, Jean Pierre Rampal, Nicolas Slonimsky, Ernst Krenek, and hundreds of other artists and composers. You will even meet unlikely personalities such as David Ben-Gurion and Arnold Toynbee captured in sound for posterity.

When 12-year-old Janina Fialkowska momentarily decided to dedicate her life to music, little did she know what was in store. Certainly her love of music and desire to share this love provided fulfilment and joy, and there was a certain glamour to the life of a touring artist. She traveled to many countries, met many fascinating people, and indulged her weakness for good food. But there was another side to such a life, and reality made its ugly appearance fairly early on. This collection of autobiographical anecdotes, some poignant, some hilarious, describes her meeting with the legendary Arthur Rubinstein, who subsequently shaped the course of her career. Her colourful adventures as a young North American woman in the male-dominated music world and her final triumph over horrific illness.
