the memoirs of a german jew who escaped nazi germany served in the american army and lived a long successful and fulfilling life in the united states the life altering experiences of the american soldiers who liberated three nazi concentration camps on april 4 1945 united states army units from the 89th infantry division and the 4th armored division seized Ohrdruf the first of many Nazi concentration camps to be liberated in Germany in the weeks that followed as more camps were discovered thousands of soldiers came face to face with the monstrous reality of Hitler's Germany these men discovered the very depths of human imposed cruelty and depravity railroad cars stacked with emaciated lifeless bodies ovens full of incinerated human remains warehouses filled with stolen shoes clothes luggage and even eyeglasses prison yards littered with implements of torture and dead bodies and perhaps most disturbing of all the half dead survivors of the camps for the American soldiers of all ranks who witnessed such powerful evidence of Nazi crimes the experience was life altering almost all were haunted for the rest of their lives by what they had seen horrified that humans from ostensibly civilized societies were capable of such crimes military historian John C. McManus sheds new light on this often overlooked aspect of the Holocaust drawing on a rich blend of archival sources and thousands of firsthand accounts including unit journals interviews oral histories memoirs diaries letters and published recollections hell before their very eyes focuses on the experiences of the soldiers who liberated Ohrdruf Buchenwald and Dachau and their determination to bear witness to this horrific history

This four volume set provides reference entries primary documents and personal accounts from individuals who lived through the Holocaust that allow readers to better understand the cultural political and economic motivations that spurred the final solution the Holocaust that occurred during World War II remains one of the deadliest genocides in human history with an estimated two thirds of the 9 million Jews in Europe at the time being killed as a result of the policies of Adolf Hitler and Nazi Germany the Holocaust an encyclopedia and document collection provides students with an all encompassing resource for learning about this tragic event a four book collection that provides detailed information as well as multidisciplinary perspectives that will serve as a gateway to meaningful discussion and further research the first two volumes present reference entries on significant individuals of the Holocaust both victims and perpetrators anti semitic ideology and annihilationist policies advocated by the Nazi regime giving readers insight into the social political cultural military and economic aspects of the Holocaust while enabling them to better understand the final solution in Europe during World War II and its lasting legacy the third volume of the set presents memoirs and personal narratives that describe in their own words the experiences of survivors and resisters who lived through the chaos and horror of the final solution the last volume consists of primary documents including government decrees and military orders propaganda in the form of newspapers and pamphlets war crime trial transcripts and other items that provide a direct look at the causes and consequences of the holocaust under the nazi regime by examining these primary sources users can have a deeper understanding of the ideas and policies used by perpetrators to justify their actions in the annihilation of the jews of europe the set not only provides an invaluable and comprehensive research tool on the holocaust but also offers historical perspective and examination of the origins of the discontent and cultural resentment that resulted in the holocaust subject matter that remains highly relevant to key problems facing human society in the 21st century and beyond born in berlin in 1922 james bachner was a german jew during the darkest days of the third reich once a happy child in a well to do german family as the years passed bachner faced first ridicule and persecution then imprisonment and deprivation attributing his survival to a combination of strength and being in the right place at the right time bachner s memoir is a poignant and often horrific account of jewish struggles during the days of world war ii beginning with his idyllic childhood bachner expresses the range of emotions he experienced as the nazis transformed his homeland into a nation where he and his fellow jews were no longer welcome he describes the volatile political atmosphere and the fears inspired in all germans by tales of the concentration camps in addition he tells of the belief many jews held that the west would step in and put an end to hitler s reign the work then details the realities of life in a concentration camp the end of the war bachner s reunion with his remaining family members and his eventual relocation to america are also discussed first english translation of the memoirs of austrian romani holocaust survivor writer visual artist musician and activist ceija stojka 1933 2013 along with poems an interview historical photos and reproductions of her artworks is this the whole world this question begins the first of three memoirs by austrian romani writer visual artist musician and activist ceija stojka 1933 2013 told from her perspective as a child interned in three nazi concentration camps from age nine to twelve written by a child survivor much later in life the memoirs offer insights into the nexus of narrative and extreme trauma expressing the full spectrum of human emotions fear and sorrow at losing loved ones joy and relief when reconnecting with family and friends desire to preserve some memories while attempting to erase others horror at acts of genocide and hope arising from dreams of survival in addition to annotated translations of the three memoirs the book includes two of stojka s poems and an interview by karin berger editor of the original editions of stojka s memoirs as well as color reproductions of several of her artworks and historical photographs an introduction contextualizes her works within romani history and culture and a glossary informs the reader about the concentrationary universe because the memoirs show how stojka navigated male dominated postwar austrian culture generally discriminatory to roma and the patriarchal aspects of romani culture itself the book is a contribution not only to holocaust studies but also to austrian studies romani studies and women s and gender studies since the early 1990s tens of thousands of memoirs by celebrities and unknown people have been published sold and read by millions of american readers the memoir boom as the explosion of memoirs on the market has come to be called has been welcomed vilified and dismissed in the popular press but is there really a boom in memoir production in the united states if so what is causing it are memoirs all written by narcissistic hacks for an unthinking public or do they indicate a growing need to understand world events through personal experiences this study seeks to answer these questions by examining memoir as an industrial product like other products something that publishers and booksellers help to create these popular texts become part of mass culture where they are connected to public events the genre of memoir and even genre itself ceases to be an empty classification category and becomes part of social action and consumer culture at the same time from james frey s controversial a million little pieces to memoirs about bartending iran the liberation of dachau computer hacking and the impact of 9 11 this book argues that the memoir boom is more than a publishing trend it is becoming the way american readers try to understand major events in terms of individual experiences the memoir boom is one of the ways that citizenship as a category of belonging between private and public spheres is now articulated presents synopses of 21 published memoirs of holocaust survivors written by various authors the aim of the digest is to make the contents of the memoirs available for holocaust educators students and researchers each entry contains publication details a summary focusing on the main topics e g prewar jewish life daily life in ghettos deportations nazi camps death marches resistance and rescuers a list of place names and maps each volume includes 30 new color maps prepared by martin gilbert blatman writes about the end phase of the german concentration camp system when the nazis realizing that they were losing the war were faced with the enormous problem of what to do with the people being held captive as these camps were being evacuated the collapse of the front in poland and the advance of the red army generated frantic waves of flight and the evacuation of millions of civilians and soldiers the panicky retreat created conditions under which prisoners were murdered in horrific death marches gas chambers in faraway camps were no longer in use and now the slaughters took place on the very doorsteps of ordinary german civilians homes and in the streets german and austrian towns unknown numbers of ordinary civilians across the dissolving reich fearing for the fate of their families and property participated in the lethal eruption of violence the book is divided into two sections the first part provides an detailed overview of the camp system and a thorough chronological treatment of the camp evacuations during the winter of 1944 45 and the spring of 1945 the second part is a case study of the atrocity in the german town of gardelegen where over 1000 prisoners were murdered along with about 400 in the surrounding villages this event serves as a focused example of the breakdown of the evacuation plans at the end of the war
