the idea for fiction or prophecy was born through a casual discussion with a neighbor in the author s family room the discussion was based on the news that one of the terrorists claimed that they were secretly developing a backpack nuclear bomb and planned on bombing ten of our largest city our officials wrote it off as an idle threat and that they could never get ten nuclear backpacks into the country the neighbor questioned how they could say that when a million mexicans cross our borders daily with backpacks of drugs weapons and personal items having been in the scientific field and seeing how electronic technology had exploded during his life time the author had no doubt that it was a matter of time and that terrorist would not hesitate to use it he wonder what would happen if the terrorist was telling the truth this enticed the author to write a novel on this threat is this novel purely fiction or is it a prediction of what was to come in the novel mike met sarah on the road to chicago she was having auto trouble he stopped to help her since he couldn t fix it he took her to an auto shop in next town since her car couldn t be fixed in an acceptable time mike offered to give her a ride to chicago this delay saved their lives but also put them on the road of deadly danger the book of jeremiah poses a challenge to biblical scholarship in terms of its literary composition and textual fluidity this study offers an innovative approach to the problem by focusing on an instructive case study building on the critical recognition that the prophecy contained in jer 10 1 16 is a composite text this study systematically discusses the various literary strands discernible in the prophecy satirical depictions of idolatry an aramaic citation and hymnic passages a chapter is devoted to each strand revealing its compositional development from the earliest recoverable stages down to its late reception a range of pertinent evidence culled from the literary text critical and linguistic realms is examined and sets within broader perspectives with an eye open to cultural history and the development of theological outlook the investigation of a particular text has important implications for the textual and compositional history of jeremiah as a whole rather than settling for the common opinion that jeremiah developed in two main stages reflected in the mt and lxx respectively a nuanced supplementary model is advocated which better accords with the complexity of the available evidence volume one of this book will discuss about the true gospel of jesus as which is about the imminent coming of the son of man and the establishment of the universal kingdom of god on earth we will emphasize the fact that the entire ministry of jesus as is all about the good news of the imminent fulfillment of the son of man prophecy and the kingdom of god prophecy of prophet daniel as as written in the bible based on the correct context and interpretation the son of man mentioned by jesus as refers to prophet muhammad saw and the kingdom of god refers to islam volume two will discuss about the fulfillment of the 70 weeks prophecy of prophet daniel as that this prophecy is actually a countdown to know the year jesus as and muhammad saw will come on earth jesus as is expected to arrive in the 69th week of the countdown and prophet muhammad saw will arrive in the 70th week of the countdown its exact fulfillment in history such as the year of their birth the starting year of their ministry and the year their respective messianic mission will be accomplished is a miracle or sign from allah swt qur an 20 133 and a clear evidence qur an 61 6 attesting the veracity of the prophethood of both jesus as and muhammad saw this will explain to us why there are jews who knew what time or year jesus as will arrive on earth and why there were jews in yathrib arabia who knew what time or year muhammad saw will emerge as messenger of god the book begins by covering the general and clinical challenges that are unique to muslims drawing from an internationally ethnically and intergenerationally diverse pool of experts the text covers not only how psychiatrists and other clinicians can intervene successfully with patients but how we as clinicians can have a role in addressing other societally connected mental health challenges arising from islamophobia the text addresses three related but distinct areas of interest islamophobia as a destructive force islam as a religion that is threatened by stigma and misinformation and the novel intersection of these forces with the field of psychiatry islamophobia and psychiatry is a vital resource for all clinicians and clinicians in training who may encounter patients struggling with these issues including adult and child psychiatrists psychologists primary care physicians counselors social workers and others in this book zeina g halabi examines the figure of the intellectual as prophet national icon and exile in contemporary arabic literature and film staging a comparative dialogue with writers and critics such as elias khoury edward said jurji zaidan and mahmoud darwish halabi focuses on new articulations of loss displacement and memory in works by rabee jaber elia suleiman rawi hage rashid al daif and seba al herz she argues that the ambivalence and disillusionment with the role of the intellectual in contemporary representations operate as a productive reclaiming of the political in an allegedly apolitical context the unmaking of the arab intellectual offers the critical tools to understand the evolving relations between the intellectual and power and the author and the text in the hitherto uncharted contemporary era this highly thought provoking book packed with incisive observations and analyses on a wide range of issues facing british muslims offers concise yet extensive commentary on the cultural and intellectual contentions in contextualising islam in the uk as of 2018 roughly 50 of the uk s muslim population was born in the uk with this shift comes on one hand the loss of old ways of experiencing the world and navigating one s place within it and on the other hand it comes with the excitement and opportunity to make new culture the questions now facing british muslims are from where can british muslims get their inspiration and what should be the nature of this new culture these questions are becoming ever more important as the uk s muslim population is expected to grow from 5 to 10 by 2050 thus the author s clearly presented analysis provides critical and constructive insights for readers wanting to understand how to make faith more meaningful and relevant going from a largely immigrant ethnocentric religion and identity politics to one formed on intelligent and confident theocentric understanding essential reading for anyone interested in islam and british muslims including policymakers community leaders philanthropists and activists as well as scholars and students of islamic studies sociology cultural studies politics philosophy and identity this is a most refreshing and indispensable overview for anyone interested in the area commendations dr khan rejects the shallow identity politics which assume that british muslims must either assimilate to western secular norms or react fanatically against them instead he reminds us that all great religions demand an intelligent application of their principles to everyday life and demonstrates how this should be done in a series of thoughtful articles which not only offer informed judgements but encourage readers to think for themselves dr michael sherborne author of hg wells another kind of life 2010 mamnun is a young social analyst founder of grassroots initiatives and writer whose collection of articles are interesting insightful and pertinent his ability to question received wisdom analyse complex issues succinctly and offer possible solutions to the challenges facing british muslims is refreshing and admirable recommended reading muhammad mojrum khan f r a s author of bestselling the muslim 100 2008 the muslim heritage of bengal 2013 and great muslims of the west 2017 this collection of thoughts observations and meditations provides a welcome perspective to the ongoing crystallisation of religiously inspired thinking in britain it is in the spirit of communal deliberation and intellectual enquiry that this anthology constructively demonstrates how we might proceed shaykh muhammad nizami british born islamic scholar and political theorist islam in the uk is at a fork in the road at the end of one turn is weakness irrelevance and eventual disappearance at the other end is confidence prosperity and illumination dr mamnun s timely series of short essays boldly and effectively makes the case for the latter may this work inspire positive action in those who are concerned by our current predicament and long for a return to godliness guidance and harmony iqbal nasim chief executive national zakat foundation prophetic events in the revelation of jesus christ have been locked from our understanding ever since they were given to john about ad 95 however god has never intended that his people be in darkness during the fulfillment of latter day prophecies daniel was told that the words of his latter day prophecy were closed up and sealed till the time of the end then none of the wicked will understand but the wise will understand this is the time of the end now at last symbols in revelation as well as other parts of the bible are explained from scripture in a way that can be easily understood the revelation unlocked tells about the redemption of
