a bold new interpretation of nat turner and the slave rebellion that stunned the american south in 1831 virginia nat turner led a band of southampton county slaves in a rebellion that killed fifty five whites mostly women and children after more than two months in hiding turner was captured and quickly convicted and executed in the matter of nat turner penetrates the historical caricature of turner as befuddled mystic and self styled baptist preacher to recover the haunting persona of this legendary american slave rebel telling of his self discovery and the dawning of his christian faith of an impossible task given to him by god and of redemptive violence and profane retribution much about turner remains unknown his extraordinary account of his life and rebellion given in chains as he awaited trial in jail was written down by an opportunistic white attorney and sold as a pamphlet to cash in on turner s notoriety but the enigmatic rebel leader had an immediate and broad impact on the american south and his rebellion remains one of the most momentous episodes in american history christopher tomlins provides a luminous account of turner s intellectual development religious cosmology and motivations and offers an original and incisive analysis of the turner rebellion itself and its impact on virginia politics tomlins also undertakes a deeply critical examination of william styron s 1967 novel the confessions of nat turner which restored turner to the american consciousness in the era of civil rights black power and urban riots a speculative history that recovers turner from the few shards of evidence we have about his life in the matter of nat turner is also a unique speculation about the meaning and uses of history itself as alexander the great sits with his troops poised to attack his guides are murdered can he uncover the spies in time the house of death is the first mystery in the magnificent ancient greece series featuring alexander the great and his physician telamon by master historian paul doherty perfect for fans of gary corby and margaret doody paul doherty has created a vivid credible picture of life in the persian and macedonian courts on the eve of alexander s conquests the times it is 334 bc and the young alexander sits with his troops by the hellespont poised to attack the empire of the great king darius iii to win the approval of the gods for his enterprise he makes many offerings yet the smoke does not rise the sacrificial animals are flawed worse his guides are being brutally murdered persian spies are in the camp and alexander s generals have their own secrets into this turmoil comes telamon a physician and boyhood friend of alexander as the climax builds and alexander throws off his nervous fears winning a brilliant and bloody triumph over the persians telamon must at last succeed in unmasking their enemies what readers are saying about the house of death a book to fall in love with paul doherty at his very best very well researched a joy to read found myself totally engrossed in the book i could not put it down till i got to the very last page
