in this major paradigm shifting work kojini karatani systematically re reads marx s version of world history shifting the focus of critique from modes of production to modes of exchange karatani seeks to understand both capital nation state the interlocking system that is the dominant form of modern global society and the possibilities for superseding it in the structure of world history he traces different modes of exchange including the pooling of resources that characterizes nomadic tribes the gift exchange systems developed after the adoption of fixed settlement agriculture the exchange of obedience for protection that arises with the emergence of the state the commodity exchanges that characterize capitalism and finally a future mode of exchange based on the return of gift exchange albeit modified for the contemporary moment he argues that this final stage marking the overcoming of capital nation and state is best understood in light of kant's writings on eternal peace the structure of world history is in many ways the capstone of karatani's brilliant career yet it also signals new directions in his thought this edition makes available an entirely new version of hegel's lectures on the development and scope of world history volume i presents hegel's surviving manuscripts of his introduction to the lectures and the full transcription of the first series of lectures 1822-23 these works treat the core of human history as the inexorable advance towards the establishment of a political state with just institutions a state that consists of individuals with a free and fully developed self consciousness hegel interweaves major themes of spirit and culture including social life political systems commerce art and architecture religion and philosophy with an historical account of peoples dates and events following spirit's quest for self realization the lectures presented here offer an imaginative voyage around the world from the paternalistic static realm of china to the cultural traditions of india the vast but flawed political organization of the persian empire to egypt and then the orient and the birth of freedom in the west to the christian revelation of free political institutions emerging in the medieval and modern germanic world brown and hodgson's new translation is an essential resource for the english reader and provides a fascinating account of the world as it was conceived by one of history's most influential philosophers the editorial introduction surveys the history of the texts and provides an analytic summary of them and editorial footnotes introduce readers to hegel's many sources and allusions for the first time an edition is made available that permits critical scholarly study and translates to the needs of the general reader the one year course in world history popular in some quarters does not seem to have made much headway high school level courses on world history are one of the many responses to the world wars yet said courses have never been recommended by a committee of national scope on which there were any historians opinion surveys among teachers and students indicate that no other part of the typical social studies program is more criticized than the tenth grade level one year elective world history course these courses are increasing in number textbooks are multiplying and a few interesting experiments are being worked out yet there is no general agreement on organization scope objectives teaching strategies or assessment in these courses this document is a summary of historical and recent surveys on curricular trends in social studies with regard to world history to help educators assess what impact they may have on the teaching of world history in the 1970s despite the fact that the name of many characters mentioned in the old testament like david king of israel have been recently confirmed by archaeology as well as their epoch and the events in which they were involved most archaeologists continue to deny the historicity of the bible they view as pious fiction or a mythical account they argue that the major events in the bible such as the victory of abraham against chedorlaomer an unknown king of elam around 2000 bce the victory of moses against an unknown pharaoh around 1500 bce or the victory of esther an unknown persian queen against an unknown vizier of xerxes never existed because they left absolutely no evidence they also explain that according to what we know today these events could not have occurred these logical arguments are impressive but a precise chronological analysis based on absolute dates coupled with a rigorous historical investigation shows that all those major events really took place at the dates and places indicated
