the aesthetics of everyday life originally developed by henri lefebvre and other modernist theorists is an extension of traditional aesthetics usually confined to works of art it is not limited to the study of humble objects but is rather concerned with all of the undeniably aesthetic experiences that arise when one contemplates objects or performs acts that are outside the traditional realm of aesthetics it is concerned with the nature of the relationship between subject and object one significant aspect of everyday aesthetics is environmental aesthetics whether constructed as a building or manipulated as a landscape others also discussed in the book include sport weather smell and taste and food as a new trend in aesthetics appearing concurrently in the west and the east in the last ten years the aesthetics of everyday life points to a growing diversification among existing methodologies for pursuing aesthetics alongside the shift from art based aesthetics the cultural diversity manifest in global aesthetics offers common ground for the collaborative efforts of aesthetics in both the west and the east given the rapidly growing interest and its potential for attracting new audiences extending beyond the more narrowly focused traditions of twentieth century analytic and environmental aesthetics it stands to command its own share of attention in the future of aesthetic studies the aesthetics of everyday life has become a stream of thought with a global ambition this interest has led to numerous systematic and in depth works on this topic some of which were conducted by the authors represented in this volume a salient feature of this book is that it not only represents the recent developments of the aesthetics of everyday life in the west but also highlights the interaction between scholars in the west and the east on this topic thus the project is a contribution toward mutual progress in the collaboration between western and eastern aesthetics what distinguishes this book from other anthologies and monographs on this topic is that it reconstructs the aesthetics of everyday life through cultural dialogue between the west and the east with a view to building a new form of aesthetics of everyday life as seen from a global perspective at present the aesthetics of everyday life as a newly emergent approach to aesthetics may encounter skepticism among aestheticians accustomed to the rigors of analytic philosophers who prefer to discuss aesthetics at the level of abstract concepts and argument and who tolerate the particulars of experience mainly as illustrations but there is no reason to abandon the pursuit of the aesthetics of everyday life in the face of such objections on the contrary there are many benefits to gain in bringing aesthetics to bear on a wider sphere of human life made possible through efforts to show the relevance of aesthetics to a broader range of human actions everyday aesthetic experiences and concerns occupy a large part of our aesthetic life however because of their prevalence and mundane nature we tend not to pay much attention to them let alone examine their significance western aesthetic theories of the past few centuries also neglect everyday aesthetics because of their almost exclusive emphasis on art in a ground breaking new study yuriko saito provides a detailed investigation into our everyday aesthetic experiences and reveals how our everyday aesthetic tastes and judgments can exert a powerful influence on the state of the world and our quality of life by analysing a wide range of examples from our aesthetic interactions with nature the environment everyday objects and japanese culture saito illustrates the complex nature of seemingly simple and innocuous aesthetic responses she discusses the inadequacy of art centered aesthetics the aesthetic appreciation of the distinctive characters of objects or phenomena responses to various manifestations of transience and the aesthetic expression of moral values and she examines the moral political existential and environmental implications of these and other issues yuriko saito explores the nature and significance of the aesthetic dimensions of people s everyday life everyday aesthetics has the recognized value of enriching one s life experiences and sharpening one s attentiveness and sensibility saito draws out its broader importance for how we make our worlds environmentally morally as citizens and consumers saito urges that we have a social responsibility to encourage cultivation of aesthetic literacy and vigilance against aesthetic manipulation yuriko saito argues that ultimately everyday aesthetics can be an effective instrument for directing the humanity s collective and cumulative world making project for the betterment of all its inhabitants everyday aesthetics has been seen as a challenge to contemporary anglo american aesthetics discourse which is dominated by the discussion of art and beauty saito responds to controversies about the nature boundary and status of everyday aesthetics and argues for its legitimacy she highlights the multi faceted aesthetic dimensions of everyday life that are not fully accounted for by the commonly held account of defamiliarizing the familiar katya mandoki advances in this book the thesis that it is not only possible but crucial to open up the field of aesthetics traditionally confined to the study of art and beauty toward the richness and complexity of everyday life she argues that in every process of communication whether face to face or through the media fashion and political propaganda there is always an excess beyond the informative and functional value of a message this excess is the aesthetic following huizinga s view of play as an ingredient of any social environment mandoki explores how various cultural practices are in fact forms of playing since for the author aesthetics and play are siamese twins one of the unique contributions of this book is the elaboration and application of a semiotic model for the simultaneous analysis of social interactions in the four registers namely visual auditory verbal and body language to detect the aesthetic strategies deployed in specific situations she argues that since the presentation of the self is targeted towards participants sensibilities aesthetics plays a key role in these modes of exchange consequently the author updates important debates in this field to clear the way for a socio aesthetic inquiry through contexts such as the family school medical artistic or religious traditions from which social identities emerge
