storm clouds are on the horizon and are hovering over the judeo christian community returning to god s word is our only hope for these troubled times on the cusp of these changing times a remnant is being identified and called out by the holy spirit to return to the foundational roots of christianity the first century church of jesus apostles was vastly different from the church of today their foundational strength was built upon the rock of jesus christ and was founded upon the biblical hebrew jewish customs of jesus christ and his disciples this book is a basic handbook a 101 primer for reconciliation and restoration its exposure to the rich hebraic customs and traditions of jesus day will bring a refreshing breath to traditional christianity it s a call to return to the faith once delivered to the saints to prepare for eternity in god s city the new jerusalem since the second world war the church s history has undergone a profound change after a long period in which the gospel had been embedded in a western european context it must now be seen in a pluralist setting and the full implications of its claims to universality have emerged this change is likely to be as significant as the first major change in christian history when the church developed from being a jewish community to an institution in the hellenistic world what does that mean for the mission and the pastoral life of the church christians especially roman catholics from the third world are well aware of the problems that have arisen solving them cannot just be an administrative matter there is a need to go right back to the roots of missionary work hence the importance of this new book strangely enough the only one of its kind it considers the traditions and dynamics that shaped israel s consciousness of its destiny in relation to the gentiles and which ultimately led christians to proclaim the gospel to gentiles after this survey of biblical evidence a final chapter summarizes the results and considers implications for contemporary theology and church life and the relationship of christianity to other religions biblical foundations of spirituality invites readers to touch a finger to the flame of the bible by offering guidance on what how and why to read scripture as a source of spiritual nourishment the second edition builds on barbara bowe s acclaimed book with two new chapters by laurie brink and john r barker introducing key theological concepts and exploring how biblical spirituality was first experienced and expressed in early christian communities the book begins by exploring the many meanings of the word spirituality then leads readers through the bible from genesis to revelation to develop a biblically based spirituality that can serve as a compass in the challenges of life updated to reference the latest scholarship this book helps make the bible more accessible and shows how it can be relevant to life today the book stresses the spiritual dimension of biblical figures search for god and shows how their insights about god from successes to dead ends can reflect our contemporary searching and struggles biblical foundations of spirituality reveals the spiritual wisdom of the bible connecting it with everyday life and spirituality with a chronology reflection questions a glossary and updated notes and bibliography as well as two new chapters the second edition of biblical foundations of spirituality is ideal for classroom parish or individual reading in a rapidly changing world the central missionary vision of the church must be constantly renewed lest its foundations become lost in the confusion of change or its practices trapped in missionary models of the past in this second edition of missions long time missionary gailyn van rheenen revises and updates his classic text on christian missions laying sound theological and strategic foundations for the missionary of today and tomorrow van rheenen helps renew the missionary vision by discussing areas such as the history of christian mission and how it affects where we are today spiritual formation for god s mission the missionary cycle cross cultural communication the character and calling of missionaries types of missionaries church maturation selecting mission fields the role of money in missions four levels of involvement in missions but missions is more than blackboard theory written by a long time missionary it carries the conviction and insights of one who has lived his subject accessible to students practitioners and laypeople alike missions provides a primary go to resource for understanding and becoming involved in the dynamic activity of world missions sixteen respected men and women of god apply the biblical view of manhood and womanhood in areas that concern pastors from the personal to the practical

the c u r e for life biblical foundations is not only the foundation but also the flagship and the final book of this trilogy it provides a pictorial commentary on every book of the bible from a counsellor s perspective it is an opportunity to drill down into the bedrock of the scriptures from which the christain wholeness framework arose this cwf being a simple and easy picture language will give you a visual of the bible with about 500 diagrams of the simple five steps and five shapes you are invited to picture and to frame the themes of the scriptures of wholistic god centred transformation through the story of the bible right from the beginning of the old testament through each book of the bible and reaching to the end of the new testament you will find a roadmap of the consistent theme throughout the scriptures on how this transformation actually occurs in the context of the biblical narrative this book tracks the great doctrines of god sin salvation and the church in ways which can be easily understood and transferred to others yes this book gives you a way of inviting others to see the core of the gospel the fullness of salvation and of our journey to grow to become more like jesus you will get so much more from this book if you have already read the first two books of the trilogy the c u r e for life part one god centred transformation and the c u r e for life part two god centred relationships you will be richer if you can walk this journey with even one other person or better still with your small group from church this series takes a chronological tour through the bible from creation to the ascension of christ teaching foundational truths about god and his work to reconcile mankind to himself in jesus christ series 1 first principles doctrine of christ the foundational principles of christianity according to hebrews 6 1 3 jesus is saying we need to get off foundations and move into maturity not laying again the foundation then he begins to describe the foundations which are explained in depth through this seven part teaching hebrews 6 1 3 therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of christ let us go on unto perfection not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward god of the doctrine of baptisms and of laying on of hands and of resurrection of the dead and of eternal judgment and this will we do if god permit hebrews 5 12 now by this time you ve been christians for many years you ought to be teachers you need someone again teaches you the first principles of the doctrine of god you need milk and not solid food for everyone who takes milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness he is a babe 1 repentance from dead works this is not talking about repentance from sin but from living a self centred life at the core of our being a life lived out of duty obligation legalism my efforts to be loved needed valued feel good the life of god flows out of a vital love relationship with god he is the centre not us our identity is with him his life flows through a life that s yielded and open and in love with god as a father 2 faith towards god what is faith how would i know if i had it how do i get it can it be grown and developed how can i grow and develop it turn towards god to receive his love receive identity in him receive positioning in him so you can bring forth good works living works 3 baptised into christ baptism in water a foundation of believing that causes you to step up to the reality of who jesus says you are i am immersed into something that i was not in before i am a totally new person connected to god vitally and connected to the body of christ water baptism is my testimony to the world that to the spiritual powers that old person died i m joined to the living god the power of sin is broken i m a free man there s a new person risen up born again 4 baptism in the holy spirit immersion into the person and power and presence of the holy spirit so it lives around you and is on you and flows freely from within you the entrance into a supernatural living 5 laying on of hands in the laying on of hands in the spirit there is a flow from one person to another god has called you not just to experience him but to connect to people tangibly and release what he has given you 6 resurrection of the dead there is a difference between a person being raised from the dead to extend his life and then die and the teaching of resurrection jesus was the first fruits the first born to be resurrected from the dead and appear to many in a resurrection body immortal incorruptible able to vanish in and out no longer constrained by the physical world he was a pattern for all that is to follow this teaching covers the first resurrection 1000 year reign of christ on earth and the second resurrection which one will you be in 7 eternal judgment sometimes we focus a lot on the grace of god the goodness of god the mercy of god we forget or overlook that there is another side that god is also holy and he s just his justice requires that he deal with how we ve governed our life and what we ve done in our life all of you have an appointment to keep with this there is no exception matt 16 27 i come and my reward is with me to give to every man according to his work
