in a dictionary of islam thomas patrick hughes presents a comprehensive and scholarly exploration of islamic terminology concepts and cultural practices this meticulously organized reference work serves not only as a dictionary but also as a lens into the intricate tapestry of islamic life and thought hughes employs a clear concise literary style adeptly illustrating the connectivity between various islamic teachings and their historical contexts while remaining sensitive to the nuances of different sects and interpretations within islam the work reflects the growing academic interest in understanding islam during the late 19th century a period marked by both colonial encounters and intellectual exchanges thereby situating hughes s contributions within a broader scholarly discourse on religion and society thomas patrick hughes was a prominent british scholar with a deep seated commitment to fostering understanding between cultures particularly in the context of islam his experiences as a missionary and a linguist undoubtedly influenced his motivation to write this dictionary as he sought to convey the complexities of islamic civilization to a western audience often steeped in misunderstanding hughes s background in academia and his firsthand observations during his travels have culminated in a work that is both informative and accessible a dictionary of islam is an essential resource for scholars students and general readers who seek a deeper understanding of islamic principles and their practical applications hughes s thorough analysis and careful explanations provide invaluable insights that can enhance discussions in religious studies anthropology and history by engaging with this comprehensive dictionary readers will broaden their perspectives on a faith that shapes the lives of millions around the globe

a road to christianity islam and judaism contains brief overviews of the three major religions in the world today they are the islamic religion the judaic religion and the christian religion these overviews with supporting biblical and quranic verses are related in the form of roads with their twists turns ruts and potholes many roads or overviews are unknown or learned based on the learners heritage e g original sin it would take a person a lifetime to research all the minutiae connected with the history tenets beliefs congregations sects churches mosques synagogues and people of the three major religions the three religions have many differences as well as many similarities all three religions believe in the same god creator and old testament characters except by different names all three religions believe in resurrections the afterlife adam and eve and messengers the quran regarded as the holy scripture of islam serves as a profound spiritual guide and a comprehensive framework for ethical and moral conduct written in a highly poetic and rhythmic style it is divided into 114 chapters surahs that vary in length and cover a multitude of themes including law guidance for personal conduct and narratives of previous prophets the quran's literary context is rooted in the oral traditions of 7th century arabia where eloquence and linguistic mastery were paramount in conveying truth and wisdom its verses have been studied not only for their theological insight but also for their remarkable literary beauty making it a cornerstone of both religious devotion and arabic literature the author of the quran allah is the islamic conception of god embodying omniscience and omnipotence the revelation of the quran to prophet muhammad over 23 years signifies a pivotal moment in human history conveying divine instructions aimed at uniting humanity under the principles of justice compassion and righteousness this transformative work reflects the socio political climate of its time and provides insight into the character and guidance relevant to its followers the quran is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand not only islamic jurisprudence and ethics but also the literary richness of religious texts it invites readers to ponder profound existential questions and encourages a compassionate worldview making it a source of inspiration for millions around the globe whether approached as a religious guide or a piece of literature the quran promises an enriching experience the koran admittedly occupies an important position among the great religious books of the world though the youngest of the epoch making works belonging to this class of literature it yields to hardly any in the wonderful effect which it has produced on large masses of men it has created an all but new phase of human thought and a fresh type of character it first transformed a number of heterogeneous desert tribes of the arabian peninsula into a nation of heroes and then proceeded to create the vast politico religious organisations of the muhammedan world which are one of the great forces with which europe and the east have to reckon to day jesus and muhammad are two of the best known and revered figures in history each with a billion or more global followers now in this intriguing volume f e peters offers a clear and compelling analysis of the parallel lives of jesus and muhammad the first such in depth comparison in print like a detective peters compiles dossiers of what we do and do not know about the lives and portraits of these towering figures drawing on the views of modern historians and the evidence of the gospels and the quran with erudition and wit the author nimbly leads the reader through drama and dogma to reveal surprising similarities between the two leaders and their messages each had a public career as a semi successful preacher both encountered opposition that threatened their lives and those of their followers each left a body of teaching purported to be their very words with an urgent imperative that all must become believers in the face of the approaching apocalypse both are symbols of hope on the one hand and of god s terrible judgment on the other they are bringers of peace and the sword there is however a fundamental difference muslims revere muhammad ibn abdullah of mecca as a mortal prophet although known as a prophet in his day the galilean jew jesus was and is believed by his followers to have been the promised messiah indeed the son of god the quran records revelations received by muhammad as the messenger of god whereas the revelations of the gospels focus on jesus and the events of his life and death a lasting contribution to interfaith understanding jesus and muhammad offers lucid intelligent answers to questions that underlie some of the world s most intractable conflicts
