a collection of of zwingli s later writings 1525 1531 including such works as his treatise on original sin essay on providence and his short and clear exposition of the christian faith dickens genius for creating eccentric yet entirely captivating characters found its fullest expression in his third novel nicholas nickleby published in 1839 the narrative follows nicholas as he escapes from the influence of his villainous uncle and the wicked schoolmaster wackford squeers stumbles into a theatrical career and pursues his fortune through numerous adventures upon its original publication the set was hailed as one of the most glorious publishing achievements of our time gone with the wind a 1936 novel by margaret mitchell winner of the pulitzer prize and one of the bestselling novels of all time has been heralded by readers everywhere as the great american novel gone with the wind is often placed in the literary subgenre of the historical romance novel the epic romance tale set in and around atlanta georgia during the american civil war has remained a bestseller even before the equally popular film starring clark gable and vivian leigh was made in 1939 the novel has also been described as an early classic of the erotic historical genre because it is thought to contain some degree of pornography the novel tells of archetypal southern belle scarlett o hara as she grows from a young woman into maturity against the backdrop of the american civil war like many of the early 20th century southern writers mitchell portrays an idyllic image of the antebellum south while it can be legitimately criticized for its insensitivity to the treatment of african americans who were enslaved mitchell s novel demonstrates how the south was decimated by the civil war and continued to suffer under the northern sanctioned restoration
