in the last few decades metamaterials have revolutionized the ways in which waves are controlled and applied in physics and practical situations the extraordinary properties of metamaterials such as their locally resonant structure with deep subwavelength band gaps and their ranges of frequency where propagation is impossible have opened the way to a host of applications that were previously unavailable acoustic metamaterials have been able to replace traditional treatments in several sectors due to their better performance in targeted and tunable frequency ranges with strongly reduced dimensions this is a training book composed of nine chapters written by experts in the field giving a broad overview of acoustic metamaterials and their uses the book is divided into three parts covering the state of the art the fundamentals and the real life applications of acoustic metamaterials reversing the predominant critical interpretation of la cepp[de and the th[or[mes this study claims that literary contexts and avatars act as a point of entry into devotion the book reads la cepp[de from the inside out asking principal question how does the literary initiate an exploration of the theological focusing on the ways in which the th[or[mes transform literature into a potential instrument of salvation the text looks at la cepp[de s adaptation of different renaissance lyric types modulation of the formal and thematic traits of lyric subgenres such as the blason the baiser the pastoral and pastourelle as well as the emblem allow la cepp[de to develop and exploit literature as a contemplative framework the goals in taking this approach are to emphasize la cepp[de s originality in terms of representing the christian body and spiritually erotic imagery this methodology also highlights la cepp[de s use of lyric subgenre as a means of unifying the first and second volumes of the th[or[mes in its final chapter the book compares and contrasts la cepp[de s appropriation of lyric forms with that of other renaissance poets such as lazare de selve jean de sponde and marguerite de navarre the work concludes by arguing that the contribution of la cepp[de s text lies in the singularity of its narrative structure its poetic mission and its depiction of christ s humanity literary structure becomes meditative structure as lyric form becomes a vehicle toward redemption
