this volume looks at sustainable protection and sustainable use of cultural and natural heritage particularly in view of the current challenges of the 21st century for more than 40 years the world heritage convention has regulated the protection of the cultural and natural heritage of humankind particularly in that heritage shall be protected if it is threatened by modern development the international community has also adopted sustainability and sustainable development as objectives to facilitate the protection of cultural and natural heritage sustainable heritage protection and use must therefore be preserved in the face of the global challenges it faces and must be perceived in terms of societal political and corresponding economic paradigms more journalists are being killed attacked and intimidated than at any time in history reporting dangerously journalist killings intimidation and security examines the statistics and looks at the trends in journalist killings and intimidation around the world it identifies what factors have led to this rise and positions these in historical and global contexts this important study also provides case studies and first hand accounts from journalists working in some of the most dangerous places in the world today and seeks to understand the different pressures they must confront it also examines industry and political responses to these trends and pressures as well as the latest international initiatives aimed at challenging cultures of impunity and keeping journalists safe throughout the authors argue that journalism contributes a vital if often neglected role in the formation and conduct of civil societies this is why reporting from uncivil places matters and this is why journalists are often positioned in harm's way the responsibility to report in a globalizing world of crises and human insecurity and the responsibility to try and keep journalists safe while they do so it is argued belongs to us all industrial capitalism is broken the signs which transcend national ideologies are everywhere climate change ecological overshoot financial exhaustion fraying social safety nets corporate fraud government deceit civic unrest terrorism and war but there is hope this book tells how transformation is taking root in the corporate world the last place many of us would look for solutions the book tells the stories of seven exceptional companies their shared secret is a new mental model of the firm that is the virtual opposite of industrial capitalism each company if not already a household name is a significant player within their industry and crucially has outperformed their competitors lessons can be learned it works like this instead of modeling themselves on the assumed efficiency of machines a thought process that emerged during the industrial age these firms model themselves on living systems firms with open ethical inclusive traditions where employees have a voice and a stake in what happens have a distinct advantage over traditionally managed companies where most decisions are made at the top understanding that everything of value ultimately arises from life they place a higher value on living assets people and nature than they do on non living capital assets the energy they invest in stewarding those assets a practice described in the book as living asset stewardship is transformative once termed the world's largest military museum the chinese military has made enormous progress over the past twenty years with skyrocketing military budgets and new technology china's tanks aircraft destroyers and missile capabilities are becoming comparable to those of the united states if these trends continue how powerful will the chinese military be in the future will its capabilities soon rival or surpass those of the united states the most comprehensive study of its kind this book provides a detailed assessment of china's military capabilities in 2000 and 2010 with projections for 2020 it is the first of its kind in outlining a rigorous theoretically and empirically grounded framework for assessing military capability based on not just weaponry but also doctrine training equipment and organizational structure this framework provides not only the most accurate assessment of china's military to date but an important new tool in the study of military history cultural heritage law and its response to human rights principles and practice has gained renewed prominence on the international agenda the recent conflicts in syria and mali china's use of shipwreck sites and underwater cultural heritage to make territorial claims and the cultural identities of nations post conflict highlight this field as an emerging global focus in addition it has become a forum for the configuration and contestation of cultural heritage rights and the broader politics of international law the manifestation of tensions between heritage and human rights are explored in this volume in particular in relation to heritage and rights in collaboration and in conflict and heritage as a tool for rights advocacy this volume also explores these issues from a distinctively legal standpoint considering the extent to which the legal tools of international human rights law facilitate or hinder heritage protection covering a range of issues across africa asia europe latin america and australia this volume will be of interest to people working in human rights heritage studies cultural heritage management and identity politics around the world this book fills an important gap in the literature on heritage and rights and in particular human rights law with articles from leading experts addressing the legal human rights dimensions of cultural heritage protection it makes a significant contribution to debates over issues such as why should we safeguard heritage and for whom and what is the relationship between heritage safeguarding and protecting human rights these are deep questions of profound significance to individuals communities and even nations around the world and are of increasing urgency today it critically analyses the relationship between heritage and human rights that can be potentially pernicious as well as mutually reinforcing placing this analysis within the wider context and with a broad geographical scope with examinations of the heritage rights relationship in southeast asia cambodia china and sub saharan africa dr janet blake associate professor in law shahid beheshti university tehran traversing the destruction of mausoleums in timbuktu to war crimes trial by the international criminal court heritage culture and rights explores the crucial links between human rights and the protection of cultural heritage the essays are accessible to all viewing the destruction of cultural heritage as a breach of human dignity and identity unputdownable professor gillian triggs president of the australian human rights commission this collection of essays by leading scholars though primarily australian in origin is universal in orientation ranging from a broad survey of the applicable laws of armed conflict to a detailed consideration of urban design in southeast asia the essays offer significant insights into the relationship between the protection and use of cultural heritage on one hand and fundamental human rights on the other ultimately the mutual reinforcement of the two disciplines of law prevails over carefully acknowledged tensions between them readers at all levels of expertise will find the book of great interest professor james nafziger thomas b stoel professor of law and director of international programs at the willamette university college of law
