Spain beyond Spain: Modernity, literary history and national identity is a collection of essays in modern Spanish literary and cultural studies by sixteen specialists from Spain, the United States and Great Britain. The essays have a common point of origin: a major conference entitled España fuera de España: los espacios de la historia literaria held in the spring of 2001 at Harvard University. The essays also have a common focus: the fate of literary history in the wake of theory and its attendant programs of inquiry, most notably cultural studies, post-colonial studies, new historicism, women's studies and transatlantic studies. Their points of arrival, however, vary significantly: what constitutes Spain and what counts as Spanish are primary concerns subtending related questions of history, literature, nationality and cultural production. Brad Epps is professor of Romance languages and literatures and of the Committee on Degrees in Women's Gender and Sexuality Studies at Harvard University. Luis Fernández Cifuentes is Robert S. and Ilse Friend Professor of Romance languages and literatures at Harvard University.
