same lectures were given by arrangement under the warrack lectureship on preaching at the universities of glasgow and aberdeen in scotland in the winter of 1947 some of the chapters were used as the basis of lectures given under the olaf petri foundation of the university of uppsala in sweden i sought to develop various portions of a general theme in these various lectureships in this volume i have drawn these lectures into a more comprehensive study of the total problem of the relation of the christian faith to modern conceptions of history while the total work therefore bares little resemblance to the lectures it does contain consideration of the specific problems which were dealt with in the lectures i shall not seek to identify this material by chapters as i subjected the whole to reorganization two of these lectureships usually deal with the art of preaching though not a few of the actual lectures have been concerned with the preacher s message since i had no special competence in the art of homiletics i thought it wise to devote the lectures to a definition of the apologetic task of the christian pulpit in the unique spiritual climate of our day since several of the beecher lecturers in the past half century sought to accommodate the christian message to the prevailing evolutionary optimism of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries i thought it might be particularly appropriate to consider the spiritual situation in a period in which this evolutionary optimism is in the process of decay this volume is written on the basis of the faith that the gospel of christ is true for men of every age and that jesus christ is the same yesterday today and forever it is nevertheless the task of the pulpit to relate the ageless gospel to the special problems of each age in doing so however there is always a temptation to capitulate to the characteristic prejudices of an age
