this new edition of korea briefing provides a timely analysis of the evolving relationship between south and north korea. In June 2000, after years of ignoring the south korean government, the north korean leader kim jong il finally agreed to a summit meeting with south korea's president kim dae jung as a sign of reconciliation. The summit meeting has prompted korea and its neighbors to rethink the assumptions of the cold war era. With contributions by a multinational panel of korean experts, the book discusses a wide range of topics, including south korean politics and economy, korea's relations with its neighbors, and with the united states. Recent changes in north korea, the fate of north korean defectors, and lessons in german reunification for the two koreas are also discussed.

discussions are supplemented by a glossary a chronology of events occurring from june 1999 to june 2001 and a bibliography
