leila ziari s first collection of poetry invites readers into a world of transformative love dedicated to and inspired by bob dylan these one hundred and eleven poems reveal the bliss pain expansion longing and ecstasy of eternal love earthly and ethereal timely and timeless just as ziari chronicles her own metamorphosis she invites the reader to be inspired uplifted healed and renewed through her bold confession of passionate devotion ziari dissects the very essence of love and the whirlwind of emotions therein it is her vulnerability that allow for such immersion reminding readers that those we love are part of our spirits and have been embedded in our souls since the beginning of time while she hints at deep scars this poet never wallows her transcendent poetry reaches beyond ziari shows us what we know but so often forget the evolutionary and revolutionary power of love a passion for poetry why poetry why has this ancient craft existed throughout time continuing even into our fast paced age of moderncy and technology perhaps two reasons 1 the human condition still demands we ask who we are what we are and why we are and 2 space is limited in this form of writing requiring the poet reduce his thoughts into a quick read format puns pundits quotes poetry and prose capsule 90 of everything the human race believes to be important and true poets are avatars who define the nature and meaning of our roles they reduce the fabric of our existence to the simplest ingredients of mind soul bones sinew and desire it is the forum that speaks to all reaches all touches all teaches all questions all answers all says the author art passion poetry was inspired largely by the fact that with teaching research writing and painting i have had less time for playing the piano which i dearly love and have played since age five i have transmuted the musical urge into a different kind of music poetry where i think my musical instincts are more developed than at the keyboard however the words of poems are as notes to me and each line a chord or arpeggio or trill that when the poem ends has given me a distinct piece of music with reflections of lived experience memory creativity analysis passion my poems are musical pieces when i finished selecting the right poems for my title i realized that i had written a musical or poetic memoir of my life one that has adhered from a love of linguistic and historical analysis together with art passion poetry art passion poetry all play a part in each poem of this collection in a particular way and usually in more than one way often quite unanticipated the poem s title may or may not reveal the major theme or themes of that poem there are often choices of ethics aesthetics sensuality and even cultural and political values that readers may be obliged to make to arrive at a conclusion near or far from the poet s this is because barbara sher tinsley believes that poetry places at least as much responsibility on the reader as on her own shoulders while recognizing in a profound way that the transmission of any poem is a shared task one of decoding the artistry and passion of each offering she also engages her readers in conversations as significant to our human experience whether creative or procreative or merely sensuous as others that contribute to our economic educational professional or mental well being readers will discover that art poetry and passion are really one what the poet sings here is true of his life he is open for the temptations of both the passion and the reason when they act together we find the person at his best in life with the strengths of purpose and will we find the poet at his best in poetry with sweet ironies spliced with the power of language when the wind of passion and the barriers of reason pull apart from sides thus the author gained from both his strength and weakness poetry to this poet is an integrated expression of personality his conception of poetry is beautifully expressed in the following stanza in the poem poetry you the gentle queen on inspiration's throne in splendours of words rhythms colours musics and passions in unending layers come sit on heart build bridges to the mind bring light to the eyes to choose a carriage to carry your muse to gentle souls it is significant of this poet that the utility of poetry for him lies in carrying her muse to gentle souls he is deeply subjective and inward looking in nature this subjective and inward looking tendency makes him a proud and self-assured individual read following lines in the poem the path of life whatever may come whatever may go whatever on the path is in store as fate i must walk as always i am proud of self and diligent of walk i tread the path that comes in front whatever at back bears my print whatever in front conforms to inner strength the poet has tried to portray the widening gulf betwixt rich and poor in the poem humanity wherein an image of poverty is laid in following lines a hapless mother offers her to greed to save her child from the hunger's death no roof to hide no cloth to cover no fire in heart to save honour dirt and filth sickness everywhere dirt and filth sickness everywhere the sufferings of the people touch the poet while writing about bangladesh cyclone in the poem bangladesh cyclone he describes how a famished man appears after the devastation god forsaken man sits in the middle and knows not whether he is dead or alive portraits of passion is primarily a portrait of passion passion in its varied and verdant forms and hues passion for life passion of love and passion to know the world around the collection has a few love portraits in both meeting and parting frames of mind read following lines of the poem that day she held the portrait close to her heart and drank his form to the brim of eyes what a gentle shine what contentment her eyes spread in expression of her heart what depth it had what immortal warmth that he felt at loss to pierce far enow parting is the more intense form of love the foretaste of the impending separation how withers souls and brings them closer in the milieu of climacteric gloom and silence is portrayed in the poem gulf of life and death face to face they sat in silence no word to speak no shine in eyes both blankly stared beyond each other no world to smile no light or sunshine they sought each other for hope and comfort in the eye of high tide of the time's drift there are a few poems on the nature in this fascicle following three lines describe the full moon in motion in her full glory through the demi jour of the heaven in a mise en scene the golden queen in the stride of royal grace ascended heaven with gold dusts splayed on the fading silk carpet of the thin sunshine the aureate beauty of the full moon day is painted in following lines the night is full with beauty's sweet contrast of peace and passions stillness and motion with shades and twilight fits of sensuous quietude a conflict of life and death and desperate waiting for something eerie and lovefull are lurking in many of the
