what does it mean for poetry and music to turn to each other in the shadow of the holocaust as a means of aesthetic self reflection how can their mutual mirroring of such paramount importance to german romanticism be reconfigured to retain its validity after the second world war these are the core questions of axel englund s book which is the first to address the topic of paul celan and music celan a jewish holocaust survivor who has long been recognized as one of the most important poets of the german language persistently evoked music and song in his oeuvre from the juvenilia to the posthumous collections conversely few post war writers have inspired as large a body of contemporary music including works by harrison birtwistle györgy kurtág wolfgang rihm peter ruzicka and many others through rich close readings of poems and musical compositions englund s book engages the artistic media in a critical dialogue about the conditions of their existence in so doing it reveals their intersection as a site of profound conflict where the very possibility of musical and poetic meaning is at stake and confrontations of aesthetic transcendentality and historical remembrance are played out in the wake of twentieth century trauma wedgfire s song is a rare and intimate look into the hearts of two soul mates written in a unique style to include the perspectives of both a horse and its human it offers readers an opportunity to accompany fire and krissi as they review the highpoints and low points of two lives entwined even though each one sees the same events from different perspectives one horse one human they always seem to grow more and more together in both love and commitment from each shared encounter this book will resonate with readers who have loved a pet so well they could hardly tell where they ended and the beloved pet began the resounding truth of wedgfires song is there is no beginning and no end
