the most practical book on negotiating ever written negotiating is an art it's complicated to become an exceptional negotiator traditionally requires years of experience in negotiations but that doesn't mean that most people can't quickly and easily learn proven negotiating skill and techniques if someone shows them what to do this book does exactly that never lose again reveals a simple but remarkably effective set of fifty questions that anyone can immediately use to become far better negotiators the fifty questions apply to all types of negotiation situations from conflicts like buying a home or car to business transactions of all kinds each question has been designed to put you in the best position possible helping you to avoid tricks break deadlocks discover conflict and dispute resolutions and find hidden deals in all types of negotiations no other book on the market distills the key negotiation principles into such a simply effective and instantly usable form by learning to use these questions you can start thinking like expert negotiators and make better deals for yourself your family and your business this is the ebook version of the printed book this element is an excerpt from the truth about negotiations 9780136007364 by leigh thompson available in print and digital formats what win win negotiation really means and how to put it to work for you seasoned negotiators will tell you the only good negotiation is one that ends in a win win yet some people think that simply means reaching any agreement others think it's a negotiation that leaves all parties still speaking still others think it means dividing everything equally down the middle although all these outcomes are desirable none captures the central concept of a win win negotiation scholars of dispute resolution and organizations at northwestern university draw on their ten years of research to extend earlier studies of the role of cognition in negotiation they emphasize the importance of concentrating on the opponents judgement of their options and strategies annotation copyrighted by book news inc portland or master the delicate art of balancing competition and cooperation a powerful guide that will help you redo something you do every day karl e weick coauthor of managing the unexpected we often assume that strategic negotiation requires us to wall off vulnerable parts of ourselves and act rationally to win but what if you could just be you in business taking a positive approach this concise book distills years of research teaching and coaching into an integrated framework for negotiating genuinely one of the most fundamental and challenging battlegrounds in our work lives negotiation calls on us to both compete and cooperate to do our jobs well and achieve extraordinary results but the biggest challenge in a negotiation is to be strategic while also being real shirli kopelman executive director of the international association for conflict management argues that this duality is both possible and powerful in negotiating genuinely she teaches how to reconcile the disparate hats you wear in everyday life with families friends and colleagues bringing one integral hat to the negotiation table kopelman develops and shares techniques that illuminate this approach and exercises along the way help you negotiate more naturally positively and successfully gavin kennedy aims to go beyond tough guy tactics to reveal how people actually negotiate this text is not about what people ought to do rationally or otherwise it is about how people really behave and what you can do about it his thesis is that the two usual modes of negotiating behaviour should be blended the red style is the use of manipulative tactics and aggressive ploys whilst the blue style is the antidote to this suggesting the use of principled negotiation and rational problem solving prescriptions kennedy presents his purple style which says give me some of what i want red style and i will give you some of what you want blue style red is taking behaviour blue is giving behaviour and purple is trading behaviour purple behaviour deals with people as they are and not how you assume them to be it is biased towards how negotiators behave and prefers the evidence of their behaviour to affirmations of their good intentions but it is not a rationale for cynicism the author sets out a simplified 4 phase process of this theory prepare debate propose and bargain
