the radical whirlwind that swept the sixties and early seventies not only impacted the arena of politics and the arts but also altered the way in which we viewed our human condition and our place in the universe this is story of a fortuitous encounter that turned into an adventure a spiritual odyssey into the land of the mushroom people the mixtecos living up in the highest point of the sierra madre del sur in the state of oaxaca inspired by the books of carlos castaneda a group of young men took their soul search into the cloud forest of southern mexico hoping to find some answers what they found was another version of the pre colombian philosophy made famous by don juan in the works of castaneda their ideas of our human condition and our place in the universe forever altered by the impact of such an experience a must read by the readers of castaneda gucumatz divine heart of heaven father and mother of all there is conceived the pristine forest as den for animals large and small but he never pledged it as dwelling for men because for humans the jungle is hell itself nevertheless instigated by greediness men invade its enclosure and unfailingly stumble into a collective madness that binds them to its roots preventing their escape before their time is due inhabiting the jungle men turn into beasts that despise kindness and relinquish all virtues as they submit to wickedness how can integrity be preserved living in hell for the jungle is xibalbá the dwelling of demons what do men look for in xibalbá that to live there they are willing to lose not only their lives but also their souls absolution perhaps because regardless of their origin removing the mask of greediness they wear over their feelings they reveal to be fugitives of their own consciences that arrive in xibalbá to atone remorse or expiate guilt and for that they come from different and distant localities thirty years in prison has a dramatic impact in the human soul it either kills you or forces you to change one way or another in my case it did both killed the old self and gave birth to a new outlook in life this work was written during my incarceration 1989 2019 and rescued by my sister hilda after my release it represents reflections of the spirit and its evolution throughout said period of time unlike other books of its kind this work does not speak directly of the shortcomings of prison life rather it focuses on the search for spiritual understanding of our fate as human beings of our human condition it depicts a spirit in motion towards the light of the inner self may these reflections find solace in the land of wandering souls in his book keeping it real dr cantu tells the reader how a man should treat a woman he also explains how a woman should treat a man from the perspective of biblical ways and principles according to the word of god plus he gives steps on how a true man should date a woman and love her just as christ loved the church and explains the truth from the word of god when in a relationship with a woman
