the subconscious mind has been seeing and recording things from the beginning from the time of our birth and hasn't forgotten it. It's like a magnetic tape that has recorded everything that has ever happened to you your life story is recorded in time and is being played back to you reminding you constantly who you think you are the story of who you are is replayed over and over in your thoughts although you may not be aware of those thoughts you are given clues as to what they are by the things occurring around you they are physical embodied manifestations of your thoughts your thoughts having energy have drawn to you things of like energy and are clues to the vibration your thoughts represent the subconscious serves a dual purpose it is the gateway the interface between the conscious and the unconscious the subconscious literally stands between the world the material and the other the spiritual it is that point where spirit and matter meet it is the gate through which we connect and communicate with our souls and our souls to our ego the gate is working both ways on the one hand it is the witness the recorder the one that records and tells the story of who you are and communicates that base vibration to the soul and in the field of intention it doesn't embellish it nor does it distort it doesn't alter it vibrates who you are your being and that vibration reverberates and is received by the soul and is imprinted in the energy field of intention where everything is made of the same pattern and vibration align with your own like being attracted to look and returned back to you just as you sent it it comes back to you exactly as you are to reveal you to yourself as a tape recorder captures the vibration of sound waves the subconscious captures the vibrations of feeling and emotion it captures and retains the vibration of our choices how we choose to interpret our experience and the vibration that is the result of that choice and then reverb that vibration into the collective energy field this energy field is although impersonal responds to our vibrations by

matching them with the desired vibrating within the field and mirror them back to us it automatically aligns our vibrations to those like vibrations within the field now the third law of motion states that for every action there is an equal and opposite reaction the law states we will to the energy we vibrate into the world in every moment you are free to decide it is this the freedom to decide who you are who you desire you are going to be in each moment the being you choose to vibrate it is this vibration that is impressed upon the subconscious it is a vibration not just words it is the meaning behind the words behind the thought the feeling the vibration this is what the subconscious is connected to and records it as malleable stuff like the magnetic tape and it is unfolding in the ability to be so it is a faultless witness to your every intention accessible to your every vibration the second function of the subconscious is to receive to allow the power and wisdom of the soul to come through and connect with the conscious ego and assist in its growth when the subconscious is free of past conditioning when the window is clean and offers no resistance to the inflow of light we then connect to a higher realm of intelligence and be guided by that intelligence we come to know in that remembrance who we are and our life so much so we have a clearer vision of all the beauty the soul can now speak to us without the distortion of our past programming standing between it and our conscious ego a well programmed subconscious mind makes the difference between happiness and sadness success and failure realizing possibilities and desires
