with this study on moltmann s pneumoatology the author recently obtained the doctor s degree from the faculty of theology of the free university in amsterdam first of all the book provides us with a thorough evaluation of the role the holy spirit plays in the theology of jürgen moltmann in its subsequent phases the author s conclusion is that despite all differences there is one constant factor the spirit is always connected with freedom the holy spirit according to moltmann is a liberating power because the author is eager to place moltmann s pneumatology repeatedly in the context of his theology as a whole and of its developments this book offers and that is a second quality an outstanding insight in the whole of moltmann s theology and its development throughout the years the purpose of this study is to show that the formal definition of the spiritual motherhood of mary would constitute a doctrinal development from vatican iis teaching on mary it is my strong view that marys spiritual motherhood should be explicitly acknowledged accepted and stamped with the extra ordinary infallibility of the church magisterium so that it would become a dogma of the church as the sensus fidelium such formal definition would give the doctrine the seal of juridical authenticity and prevent it from denigration and rejection in future this study argues that the catholic church needs to advance forwards from the marian teaching of vatican ii by making concerted efforts to maintain the marian trajectory in the church also portrayed are the efforts of the papal magisterium and some noted catholic theologians that have gone back to the sources of the early fathers of the church in order to teach that marys spiritual motherhood has solid foundation on scripture and the churchs tradition the post conciliar teachings of the above stated papal magisterium and contemporary theologians have the aim to nurture and sustain the faith and understanding of the people of god about marys spiritual motherhood the study also examines evidence to show that there is much in the catholic marian theology that could improve understanding among christians of different denominations in particular it portrays the fact that mariology always points to christ being indissolubly linked with christology and also has intrinsic unity with ecclesiology a dynamic reading of the holy spirit in revelation attempts to read the book of revelation in a new way as a narrative embracing literary elements such as plot point of view narrative voice character and story structure to help readers discover its meanings by tracing the story anew lee s unique narrative perspective offers readers a bird s eye view to experience four levels of the story heaven earth abyss and the lake of fire lee develops a theological account of john s pneumatology and surely extends christian pneumatology a doctrine inseparable from the life of the church readers will come away with a greater understanding of the role of the holy spirit which will enable them to enjoy a deeper fellowship with the holy spirit more intimately than ever before lee portrays the book of revelation as a mission oriented book that tells how the kingdom of god will be built in this world through spiritual warfare rather than as a book of eschatology lee s book will serve as a spiritual wake up call to the modern church and the people of god in its accurate portrayal of the holy spirit and vivid description of spiritual warfare
