it took 600 men six years to build and was one of the longest bridges in the world on its completion in 1878 famous visitors including the emperor of brazil prince leopold of the belgians and queen victoria herself came to pay homage to this marvel of victorian engineering then on the night of 28 december 1879 the unthinkable happened battered by an apocalyptic storm the thirteen high girders of the rail bridge over the tay estuary fell headlong into the river below carrying with them a train with all its passengers and crew there were no survivors what caused the fall of the tay bridge and who was really to blame returning to the subject since the first edition of the fall of the tay bridge in 1994 david swinfen has meticulously analysed new evidence and now presents a solution to the riddle which has perplexed historians and engineers for generations what really brought the bridge down byun joo kim claims that bonhoeffer transforms and reconstructs the augustinian doctrine of original sin by shifting the hamartiological premise from the doctrine of god to the doctrine of the church based on his lutheran resources in bonhoeffer s view augustine s doctrine of original sin does not fully relate the doctrine of sin to the responsibility of the saints in order to reform augustinian hamartiology bonhoeffer appropriates augustine s notion of the church as the whole christ totus christus which is located in augustine s ecclesiology kim explicates how augustine relates his epistemological premises in his christianized platonism to his formulation of the doctrine of original sin and examines how luther s christocentric standpoint transforms augustine s anthropology and ultimately leads luther to his relational hamartiology kim contends that bonhoeffer s later hamartiology and ethics contain the most distinctive characteristics of bonhoeffer s doctrine of sin in that he not only incorporates both the active and passive dimensions of sin but also intensifies his continuing notion of vicarious representative action towards the church community in the crusader period acre was in many ways a remarkable place but the most striking thing about its history is the number of times it fell to enemies the present volume acre and its falls is unusual in that it analyses a wide range of aspects of the history of acre across the crusader period combining political military and cultural history with a notable emphasis on the memory of the city in europe this may have been a city famous for its falls but most certainly not for them alone contributors are adrian j boas charles w connell paul f crawford susan b edgington marie luise favreau lilie john france anna gilmour bryson john d hosler georg philipp melloni janus m [?] ller jensen j rubin and iris shagrir
