michael grew up under the crushing hand of an abusive alcoholic father as an altar boy he suffered mental and emotional abuse at the hands of the clergy soon michael turned his back on the church and god for over 20 years unfortunately god s presence took a back seat to his anger resentment and disappointment it was during this period he indulged in many self destructive behaviors but he never forgot the god of his youth and a relationship that nourished and protected him when he was very young twenty years go by and michael is married and fully invested in his chosen profession yet still angry at god it was in the rooms of al anon where michael rediscovered his faith in a god that cares and began the challenging journey back to the god of his youth but god wasn t through with michael in 1985 having a profound spiritual experience he rededicated his life to the lord accepting god s forgiveness mercy and grace for his past indiscretions the scriptures became alive to him he devoured the scriptures at every opportunity since then he has been in leadership in various churches but god had more blessings for michael he hit another bottom when his attorney job ended shortly after that he attended sierra tucson for treatment of his codependency grief and other unresolved issues this was another turning point in his life michael uses his experience as a lawyer and christian life coach to be of greater service to others since 1998 michael runs the serenity shack a sober living home for men michael lives in long beach ca taking his australian shepherd oreo for her run is the favorite part of his and her day he can be contacted at hisbagofgoldjuno.com the aim of this book is to outline a general theory of hope to explore its structure forms goals reasonableness and implications and to trace the implications of such a theory for atheism or theism it offers a systematic analysis but one worked out in dialogue with ernst bloch immanuel kant and gabriel marcel at present the battle over who defines our future is being waged most publicly by secular and religious fundamentalists hope and the longing for utopia offers an alternative position disclosing a conceptual path toward potential worlds that resist a limited view of human potential and the gift of religion in addition to outlining the value of embracing unknown potentialities these twelve interdisciplinary essays explore why it has become crucial that we commit to hoping for values that resist traditional ideological commitments contextualized by contemporary writing on utopia and drawing from a wealth of times and cultures ranging from calvin s geneva to early twentieth century japanese children s stories to hollywood cinema these essays cumulatively disclose the fundamental importance of resisting tantalizing certainties while considering the importance of the unknown and unknowable beginning with a set of four essays outlining the importance of hope and utopia as diagnostic concepts and following with four concrete examples the collection ends with a set of essays that provide theological speculations on the need to embrace finitude and limitations in a world increasingly enframed by secularizing impulses overall this book discloses how hope and utopia illuminate ways to think past simplified wishes for the future the most popular source of theological hope for american christians is that of jurgen moltmann preachers teachers and lay people reflect moltmann s influence with their hope in a this worldly eschatology and a suffering god however an exclusive reliance on that hope deprives the church of crucial resources in the face of global economic environmental and military crises this book explores moltmannian hope and considers its costs before looking elsewhere for additional contributions from thomas aquinas s theological virtue of hope to nihilism and beyond in order to encourage the church to sustain and practice hope in jesus christ our only hope written in a theopoetic key this book challenges christian reliance on the motif of promise especially where promise is regarded as a prerequisite for the experience of hope it pursues instead an unpromising hope available to the agnostic or belief fluid members and leaders of faith communities the book rejects any theological judgement about doubt and hopelessness being sinful it also rejects any hope which is grounded in a sense of christian supremacy chapter 1 focuses on ernst bloch s antifascist concept of utopian surplus putting bloch in conversation with queer theorist josé esteban muñoz and womanist theologian m shawn copeland chapter 2 explores the saudadic and theopoetic hope of rubem alves chapter 3 turns to the womanist theologies of delores williams emilie townes and a elaine brown crawford finally chapter 4 engages the post colonial eschatology of vitor westhelle framing hope as nearby in space rather than nearby in time each chapter offers an unpromising hope that may be tapped into by those who wish to affirm belief fluidity in their own communities and by those who wish to speak of hope honestly whether or not at any given moment they believe in god or in the promises of a god
