john n andrews was fifteen years old when he along with other advent believers experienced the great disappointment of 1844 a few months later andrews accepted the truth of the sabbath after reading a tract and dedicated his life to serving god by age twenty three andrews had written and published thirty five articles in the review which was the beginning of a prolific writing career history of the sabbath establishes that the seventh day is the sabbath of the lord within the pages of this book andrews outlines the truth of the sabbath through the example of the creator the blessing god placed upon the day and the sanctification or divine appointment of the day to a holy use the book examines the sabbath from its inception at creation to its place in history showing how sunday worship usurped the lord s day siew seeks to examine the events that will unfold within the three and a half years before the dawn of the kingdom of god on earth he argues that john composed the textual unit of rev 11 1 14 5 as a coherent and unified literary unit structured in a macro chiasm he pays special attention to the fusion of form and content and seeks to elucidate how the concentric and chiastic pattern informs the meaning of the literary units within 11 1 14 5 and proposes that the text of 11 1 14 5 is best analyzed using hebraic literary conventions devices and compositional techniques such as chiasm parallelism parataxis and structural parallelism the macro chiastic pattern provides the literary structural framework for john to portray that the events of the last three and a half years unfold on earth as a result of what transpires in heaven specifically the war in heaven between michael and the dragon has earthly ramifications the outcome of the heavenly war where satan is defeated and thrown out of heaven to earth results in the war on earth between the two beasts of rev 13 and the two witnesses of rev 11 the narrative of the war in heaven 12 7 12 is seen as the pivot of the macro chiastic structure siew pays close attention to the time period of the three and a half years as a temporal and structural marker which functions to unite the various units in 11 1 14 5 into a coherent and integral whole the events of the last days will be centred in jerusalem transcendence in general and transformation in particular have long been established as key motifs in apocalypses the transformation of a seer during a heavenly journey is found commonly in such esoteric apocalypses as i enoch no heavenly journey occurs in the apocalypses treated here rather symbolic women figures ladies in the classical sense who are associated with god s city or tower undergo transformation at key points in the action the surface structures of joseph and aseneth 4 ezra the apocalypse and the shepherd of hermas are traced and the crucial transformation episodes are located within each structure transformation of figures which represent god s people points to the significance of identity within the apocalyptic perspective earlier analyses have demonstrated that the apocalyptic perspective urges the reader to consider life from a different stance in time and in space temporal and spatial axes the present analysis suggests that the apocalypse also charts its revelations along an axis of identity so that the reader is invited to become as it were someone more in tune with the mysteries he or she is viewing of special interest is the treatment of the increasingly well known romance joseph and aseneth alongside apocalypses a parallel which is fruitful because of the curious visionary sequence closely related to apocalypse in content and form which is found in the inner centre of that work
