the national library of greece ethnike bibliothike tes ellados is one of the richest depositories of byzantine musical manuscripts and is surpassed by its holdings in greece only by the multitude of manuscripts found in the monasteries of mount athos in spite of being such a rich archive the national library has never published a catalogue of its musical manuscripts not all of which are byzantine or greek it is the purpose of this catalogue to recover or in some instances to present for the first time the repertory of the musical sources of the library this project has been twelve years in the making for professor diane touliatos involving the discovery and detailed cataloguing of all 241 western ancient greek and byzantine music manuscripts not all of these are from athens or modern greece but also encompass turkey the balkans italy cyprus and parts of western europe this variety underlines the importance of the catalogue for identifying composers music and performance practice of different locales the catalogue includes a detailed listing of the contents as written in the original language as well as the titles of compositions and or incipits with composers modal signatures other attributions and information on performance practice each manuscript entry includes a commentary in english indicating important highlights and its significance there is a substantive english checklist that summarizes the contents of each manuscript for non greek readers a bibliography follows containing pertinent citations where the manuscript has been used in references there is also a glossary that defines terms for the non specialist examples of some of the manuscripts will be photographically displayed the catalogue will enlighten musicologists and byzantinists of the rich and varied holdings of some of the most important musical manuscripts in existence and stimulate more interest and investigation of these sources as such it will fill a major gap

one type of analysis cannot fit every play nor does one method of interpretation suit every theatre artist or collaborative team this is the first text to combine traditional and non traditional models giving students a range of tools with which to approach different kinds of performance

how many times have you experienced a musical that was fabulous or just didn't work at all but you had no idea how to communicate why how do you differentiate between a flaw in the performance portrayal of a character to a structural flaw in the musical itself how do you analyse musical theatre songs that are so subjective in its very nature is there even a common link of analysis between musicals from the golden age and musicals from the present day musical theatre script and song analysis through the ages answers these questions and gives students of musical theatre the tools they need to understand and articulate how musicals work at the heart of any musical lie its music and lyrics yet it is this area that is least understood this book offers a brand new terminology of analysis that gets to the core of what holds a musical together the libretto music and lyrics through identifying methods of lyric and musical analysis and applying these to ten different musicals throughout history students are able to ask questions such as why does this song sound this way what is this lyric doing to identify character purpose and how is a character communicating this feeling to an audience from classroom analysis through to practical application this text guides readers through a structured approach to understanding disseminating and more importantly articulating how a musical works a perfect tool for students of musical theatre its practical benefits of understanding the form and realizing that it can be applied to any age musical will benefit any theatre person in helping articulate all of those abstract feelings that are inherent in this art form it offers a roadmap to the musical s innermost dna
